NOTES

1. The signal numbers herein assigned become effective 1 July 1950.

2. A Staff Corps Officer having a Naval Reserve Officer assigned as his running mate has a number shown in the running mate column which gives the position of the U. S. Navy line officer next senior to his running mate.

3. Symbols printed after the signal number are significant as follows:

"F" Indicates officer with Fleet Reserve status.

"S" Indicates officer with spot rank who has no other officer status.

Indicates officer serving in higher spot rank. This officer is also listed in his higher rank according to his relative seniority, but the word "SPOT" is indicated in lieu of a signal number.

4. The date shown in column headed "Pay Entry Base Date" is the date which reflects all service for pay purposes.

5. File (jacket) numbers appear in the index of the register.

6. Errors or omissions should be reported by letter to the Chief of Naval Personnel.

[1] Admiral and vice admiral also entitled to personal money allowance of $2,200 and $500 per year, respectively.

[2] The monthly rate for basic allowance for quarters in the case of enlisted members in pay grades E-4 (7 or more years' service) through E-7 with dependents is $67.50. The monthly rate for basic allowance for quarters in the case of enlisted members in all pay grades without dependents is $45. For the purpose of entitlement to basic allowance for quarters, enlisted members in pay grades E-4 (less than 7 years' service) through E-1 are considered at all times as members without dependents.

[3] Enlisted members are entitled to basic allowance for subsistence at the rate of $2.25 per day when rations in kind are not available and $1.05 per day when granted permission to mess separately.
